Literary Muster - 1913: The Eve of War. Was European / Global war in 1914 inevitable? This is the question author/historian Paul Ham addresses in this provocative, perhaps even controversial short (~83 pages) essay. 1913: The Eve of War is a look at the state of Europe immediately prior the commencement of war in 1914. Little time is wasted and the essay gets straight to the point and gives understandable and believable reasons for why global war broke out in 1914.
