Robin Antalek's characters feel so vivid, so fully known, you'll swear you grew up in their close-knit neighborhood along with them. Fans of Meg Wolitzer's The Interestings and Joanna Hershon's A Dual Inheritance will love this thoughtful exploration of the warp and weft of our closest relationships. Here is a portrayal of that mystery at the heart of modern life: what it means, in a world of bad influences and clueless parenting, to actually become a grown-up.
